ORDER PROBATING WILL AND AUTHORIZING LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

On this day, came on to be heard the written Application for Probate of Will and Issuance of Letters Testamentary (the "Application") to probate the Last Will and Testament of Cathryn S. Odom (the "Will"), deceased, and for issuance of Letters Testamentary. In support of the Application, there was presented in open court the Will filed with the Court on May 9, 2000.

The Court, having heard the evidence and having reviewed the Will and the other papers filed herein, finds that all of the statements and allegations contained in the Application are true.

The Court further finds that citation and notice as required by law were issued, served, and returned in the manner and for the length of time required by law.

The Court further finds that it has jurisdiction and venue over this estate.

The Court further finds that at the time of execution of the Will on April 13, 2000, Cathryn S. Odom (the "Decedent") was of sound mind and was at least 18 years of age, and that the Will was executed with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required by law to make it a valid will, and was self-proved in accordance with the Texas Probate Code, and that no objection to or contest of the probate of the Will has been filed herein.

The Court further finds that the Decedent died at the age of 36 years on April 14, 2000, in Richardson, Dallas County, Texas, that the Will was not revoked by the Decedent, that four years have not elapsed since the death of the Decedent, that no child was born to or adopted by the Decedent after the making of the Will, and that the Decedent was not divorced after the making of the Will.

The Court further finds that John L. Sigalos was named as Independent Executor in the Will, and is a resident of and domiciled in Dallas County, Texas, and is not disqualified to serve as Independent Executor under the Will.

The Court further finds that the Will is entitled to be admitted to probate and that the Independent Executor is entitled to the issuance of Letters Testamentary.

The Court further finds that the Will provides that no bond be required of the Independent Executor and that no action be had in the Probate Court with respect to the estate of the Decedent, except to probate the Will and return and cause to be filed and approved an inventory, appraisalment, and list of claims.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Will of Cathryn S. Odom, deceased, dated April 13, 2000, and on file with the Court, be, and it is hereby, admitted to probate and record as the Last Will and Testament of Cathryn S. Odom, deceased, and that the Will, together with the Application for Probate of Will and Issuance of Letters Testamentary and the testimony given in these proceedings, be recorded in the minutes of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that John L. Sigalos be, and he is hereby, appointed as Independent Executor of the estate of Cathryn S. Odom, deceased, and that Letters Testamentary issue on his taking the oath required by law, without the posting of any bond.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that there is no necessity for the appointment of appraisers of this estate.

SIGNED this 19 day of June, 2000.
